Speaker Peter Wyss

Peter has accumulated wide experiences from different industries, working at senior positions in Telecom RF-Sales, Industrial and Medical electronic development, as well as Training and Coaching of electronic engineers based on the Swiss government curriculum. After a consulting assignment for project management, his international career started. The last position that he held was as project manager for a large railway project for the Malaysian Government.

Peter was born and raised in Switzerland. His background and upbringing are the origin of his winning attitude and his professionalism. He graduated with a BSc and a MBA from College of Bern, Switzerland. The certification as an NLP practitioner and the certification as a Professional Coach are supporting the holistic background.

He has worked with big multinational companies involved in engineering for 10 years – 4 years with Ascom (Switzerland) and 6 year with Siemens (Switzerland), both in Malaysia and overseas. Throughout his career, small and large projects for the Swiss Government and the Malaysian government has been successfully accomplished.
