Speaker
Dr. Christopher Hill

Christopher is the co-founder and Executive Director of The Agora Group, a youth think tank that provides an opportunity for students to discuss issues of a global nature. Christopher has been involved in organizing and running student conferences on an international scale and founded an electronic journal dedicated to providing a platform for student publication at an early stage of their academic careers. In August 2007, Christopher co-founded Agora Group Ghana, an NGO dedicated to improving education and welfare in Ghana and to raising political awareness and participation.

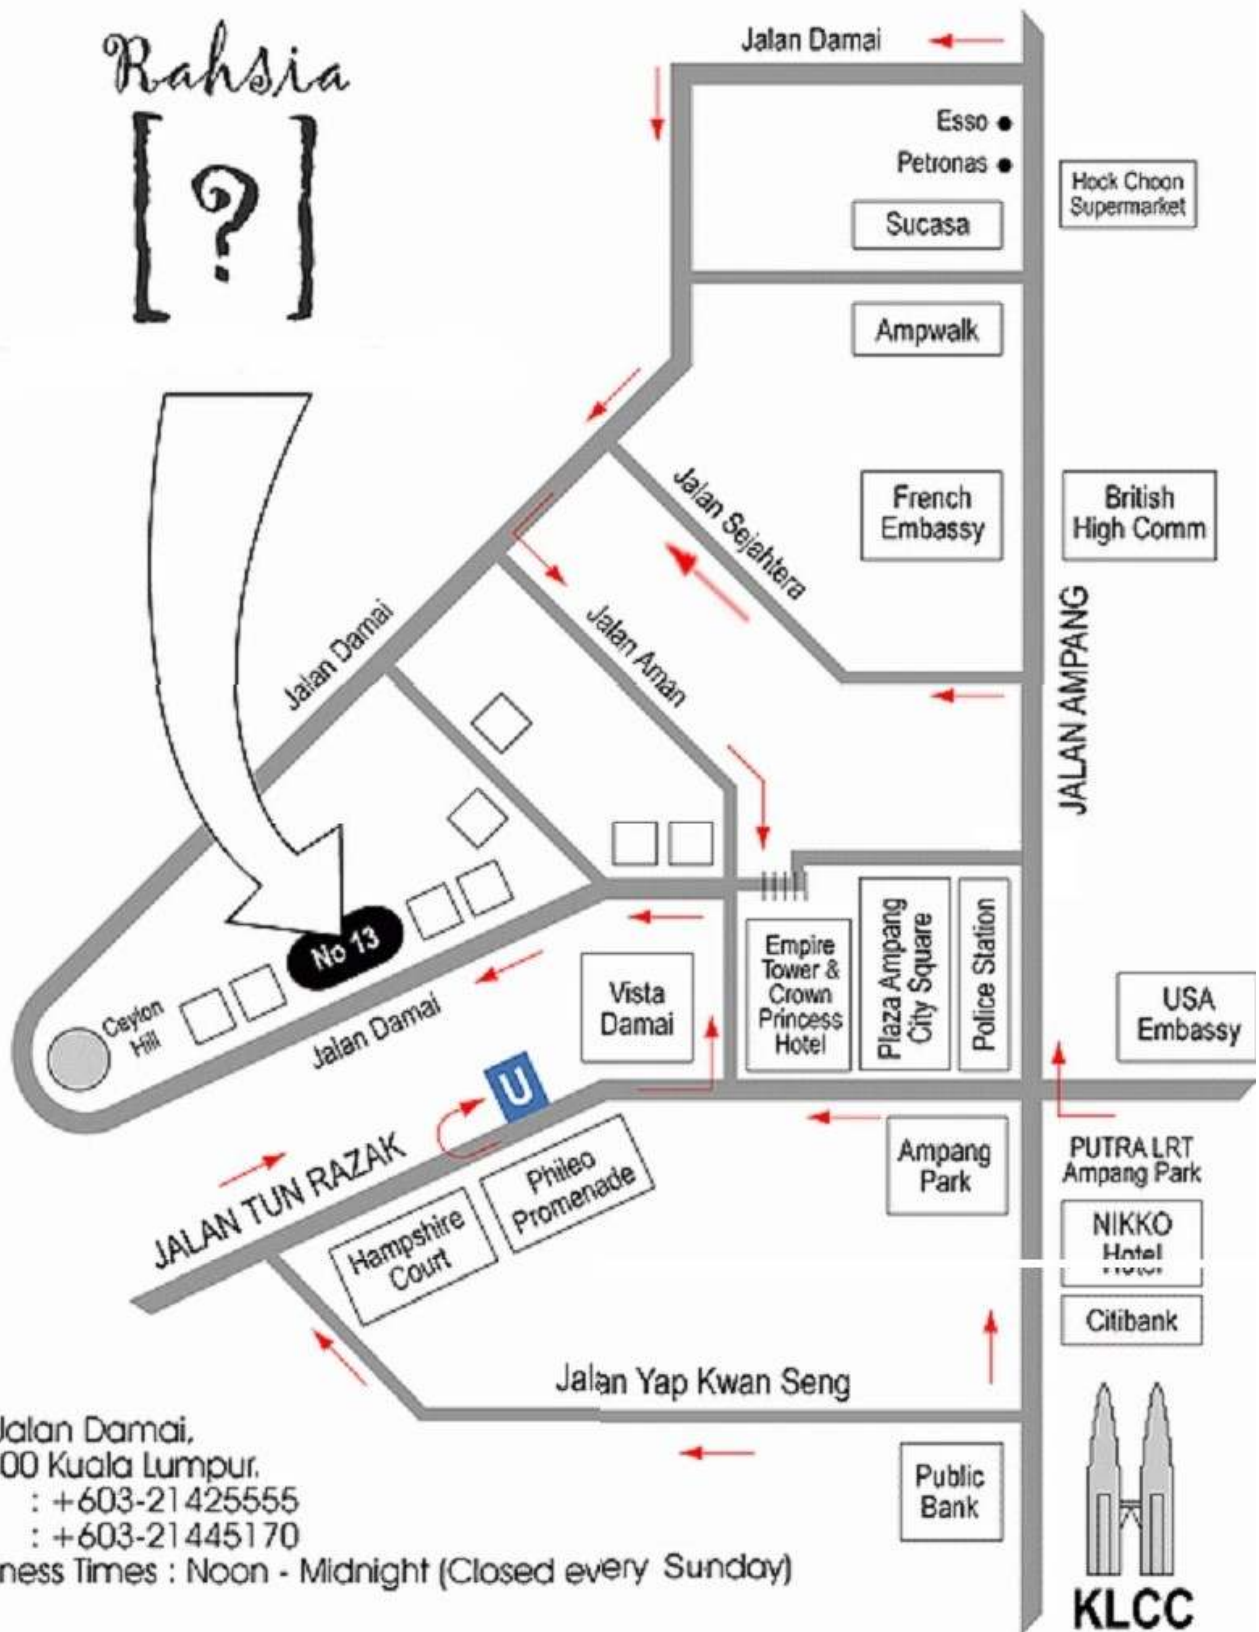

Dr. Christopher Hill is the Director of the Graduate School, The University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus. He has been responsible for the development of a fully functional Graduate Centre that provides students with quality research training in line with courses offered at The University of Nottingham and the establishment of a support base and a sense of community for the students undertaking their degrees in Malaysia.

Christopher has been a member of The University of Nottingham for the past ten years; obtaining a BA in Classical Civilization, an MA in International Relations and a PhD in Political Science.
